3rd Sunday of Easter

Acts 2:14, 22-23 ♦ 1 Peter 1:17-21 ♣ Luke 24:13-35

“Then, beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them what referred to him in all the Scriptures...and it happened that, while he was with them at table, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it and gave it to them.” -Luke 24:27,30

In today's Gospel, we hear the story of two disciples who walk alongside Jesus without recognizing him. Until Jesus helped them understand the scriptures more fully and broke bread with them, they did not know it was him. In this Gospel reading, we are reminded that Jesus is always with us – even though many times we don't recognize him. Looking back, the disciples realized their hearts were burning within them as they talked to the person they thought was a stranger. Their burning hearts were a clue that something more was going on than they recognized at the time. It wasn't until Jesus broke bread with them at the table, as he had before, that they realized it was him.

Dear Lord, continue to open our eyes to how you are with us at all times so we can better recognize you.

When has your heart told you something really important was happening, even if maybe you didn't understand it all at the time?
